I have known you for 3 years, and I have enjoyed knowing you much. You have made me feel cared when no one was there, and I really appreciate a lot. Now I turned 10 in the eighth grade,

~~we are becoming young adults~~ We becoming young adults. We will be faced with problems and problems, but through our know

*A time
to celebrate*

A time to be ourselves

People . . .

1980

There is a special time
for Covington High.

It was more than
books,
grades,
exams, and
teachers.

We found time
to grow,
to gain new friends,
to investigate ourselves, and to learn the most important lesson —
the times of our life are meant to be shared.

Our high school days
were but a fleeting moment —
Yet they left memories
that will remain with us forever.
It's as if our lives were changed
by the time spent here ...
they were.

Freshmen Display A Superb Performance

The CHS Freshman Chargers got off to a great start in their first year at high school. The team, coached by Tom Barton, lost only one game the entire season. They continued to the District and Regional Tournaments. These young men will be an asset to the varsity squad

Our varsity cheerleading squad contained ten very excited girls. They had a reason to be. They attended camp over the summer and brought home a Spirit stick for their enthusiasm; five superior and three excellent ribbons for performing cheers; and also a superior ribbon for their pom-pom routine.

The squad worked very hard during the football season hanging signs, decorating the locker room, painting windows uptown . . . their tasks went on and on.

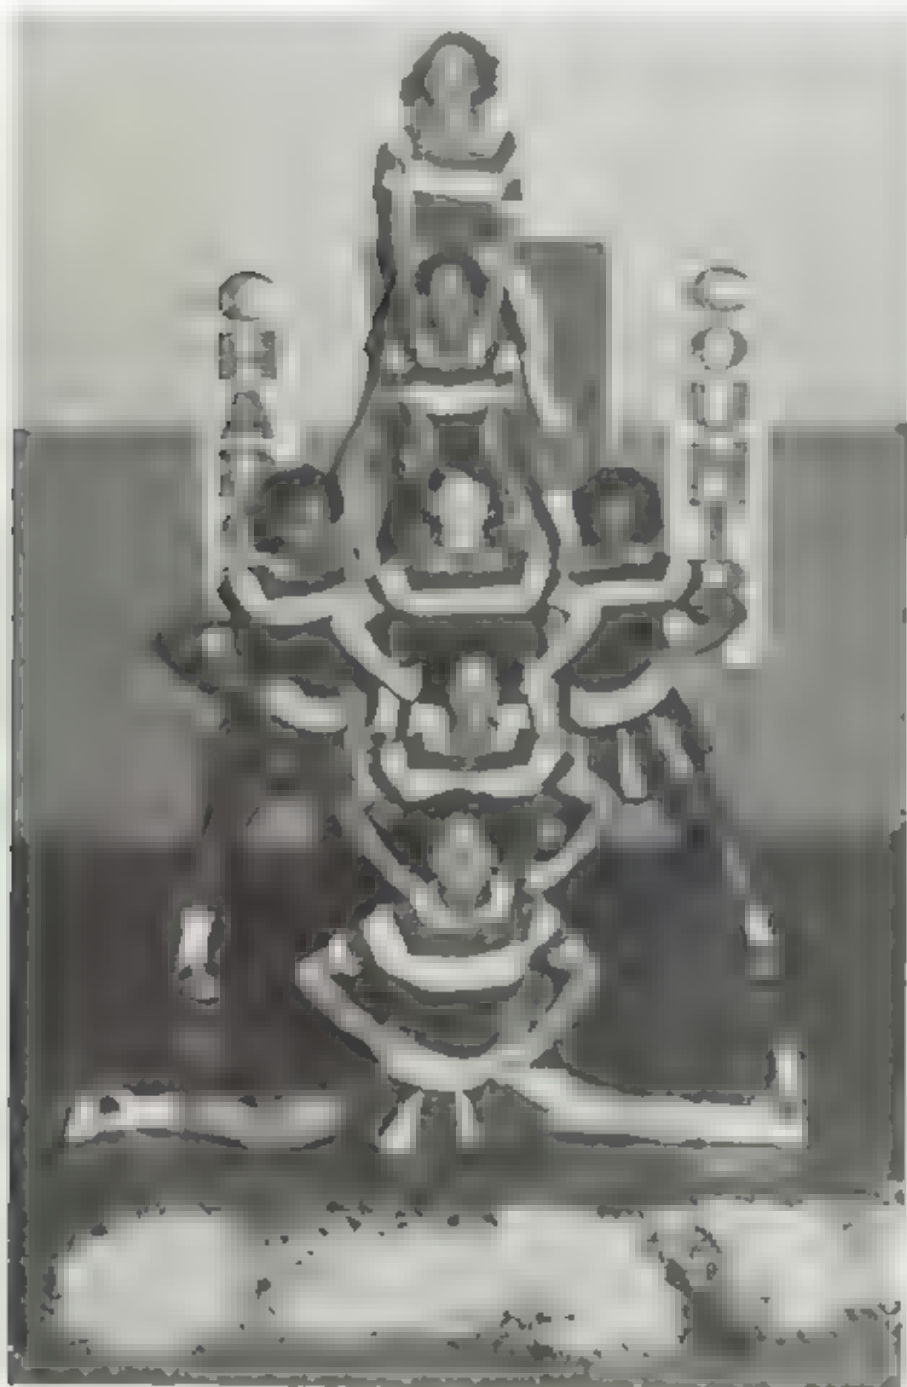

They have all worked hard together and appreciate the students' support.

The varsity basketball cheerleading squad began the 1979-80 season with spirit galore and a new sponsor. This year Mr. Robert Armstrong took full charge of the enthusiastic squad. With Teresa McGarity as their captain, these girls appeared at each ball game with bright smiles and plenty of pep.

The CHS Freshman cheerleading squad performed an excellent job cheering for the team at home and away. The following girls were chosen: Chris Whitley, Donna Clay, — co-captains Cathy Boswell, Dawn McIntosh, Deana Rone, Cindy Thomas, and Glenda Whitley. These freshmen provided spirit at the football games and also served as honorary basketball cheerleaders during basketball season. At Homecoming the girls joined the varsity squad in the week's hectic activities.

The SPIRIT staff's year was marked with change. For the first time members could gain a credit for working on the annual. Mrs. Melda McKenzie was the Journalism instructor. To lessen the cost of the annual the staff sold ads and T-shirts. The staff's animated float won first place in the Homecoming parade. With pride and pleasure the SPIRIT staff proudly presents to you the 1980 yearbook, "The Times of Your Life."

1980 was a superior year for the chorus. 30 of the 45 students who participated in the Solo and Ensemble contest received one or more superior scores. At the West TN Choral Festival, the mixed chorus won superior and excellent ratings. In addition to these contests and the annual Christmas and Spring concerts, the group entertained Lambuth College students with an evening performance. A "South Pacific" paradise was the setting of the Evening with the Chorus: A Salute to Richard Rodgers. The 107 singers celebrated the lifetime of great music Mr. Rodgers gave America

The CHS Majorettes for the "79-80" school year were Jacquelyn Heaston and Marilyn Whitley. They started their twirling season by attending the Casavant Calvacade Camp at M.T.S.U. in June of 1979. There, they received a "Mark Time" award, and a plaque for the "Best All Around Team." Most of the routines performed by the majorettes during the "79-80" school year were of their own creation.

Jacquelyn, who is a senior, was crowned as Band Queen and also received a Majorette Trophy at the band banquet.

Through a year of hard work, lots of planning, some crazy ideas, and a case of liquid paper, the 1979-80 SPIRIT staff heaved a great sigh when we sent off the final pages to the publishing company. Twelve out of the fifteen people who signed up for the journalism course were unaware of the process of producing a yearbook. We, the SPIRIT of 1980, along with much help and support from Mrs. Janice Anderson for her creative artwork, Mr. Underwood and faculty for their cooperation, Travis Bolton, Jimmy M., and Jimmy R for their photography, our local merchants for buying advertisements, and last of all, our parents for helping us make it through this year feel we have produced an annual unlike any other at CHS.

This year the staff tried extra hard to have as many pictures of students in the SPIRIT of '80 as possible. This yearbook shows that we have succeeded.

Although most of the staff members lacked experience, they didn't lack enthusiasm, and without the never-ending encouragement from our advisor, Mrs. Melba McKenzie, the SPIRIT of '80 would not be the accomplishment that it is. We are proud of this annual and hope you, the student body of Covington High School, will be, too.
